CIA

A showdown is expected next week when a Senate Foreign Relations Committee resolution calling for enlargement of a congressional group to oversee CIA operations are filed. Committee Chairman J. William Fulbright (D., Ark) delayed the filing, yesterday after meeting with Senate Armed Services sub-committee members and hearing sub-committee chairman Richard Russell (D., Ga.) re-affirm his intentions to keep anyone from "muscling in" on the CIA watching now done by members of his group and the Senate Appropriations Committee.
